How to Root for Your Favorite Team

Embroider Buddy Edition

Football season is upon us and it's never too early to get your kids rooting for the (obvious) winning team! Whether you're a "Cheese-head", a Dawg, or a Gator, it's time for your kids to be a part of the tradition – and what better way to get them in the team spirit than with Embroider Buddies?!

It's the best of both worlds – they get a soft cuddly new stuffed animal, and you get the pleasure of knowing they're headed in the right direction in life! Embroider Buddy stuffed animals are not only adorable, but are extremely simple to customize.

Plus, if you're like me (yes, I can still appreciate a nice stuffed animal – especially if it has my team's colors on it!) you can just embroider one for yourself!
